

Daily Warm-Ups

Directions: Complete all of the activities on the day that they are assigned, please do not work ahead. If you complete the assignments before the assigned date, you may receive a zero.

10/3/2016

Who Am I?

In my country, the people are in charge because they can vote.

I can be presidential or parliamentary

10/4/2016

What system of government is being described and why?

Since its 1917 constitution, Mexico has had a central government based in its capital, Mexico City, and thirty-one states that also have their own state governments. Citizens vote for their representatives on three government levels: the central, state, and municipal governments.

_____

_____

10/5/2016

1. An autocracy puts the power of the government into the hands of who?

_____

2. How can autocratic leaders come to power? (two ways)

_____

3. Legislature is to parliament as a president is to _____

4. Explain the difference between an autocracy and unitary styles of government.

_____

_____

_____

Amy lives in a country where the central government has all the control. They will however allow smaller local units (cities) create a structure for keeping order in town. The citizens in Amy's country also votes every three years for members of parliament, and those people work together to create laws for their country. Amy has always been really involved in understanding how government works, and she has stated that one day she wants to be the Prime Minister of her country.

1. What system of government is described? (power distribution) _____
2. What type of government (citizen participation) _____
3. How can Amy become the Prime Minister? _____

---

Enjoy Your Break!!